

ASNTR 2019

Conference + Quality Leads + Sales = A Winning Formula!

Exhibitor Packages: Just $3,000 for exhibition space during all events including one delegate ticket. $500 per additional exhibitor attending.

- Our exhibitor package offers great value for money and you can be sure to achieve a return on your investment.
- The benefits of taking exhibition space can be enormous. You will have the opportunity to meet quality contacts at small focused events in niche areas, so you can be sure to reach your target market.
- At the conference, you will have ample opportunity to showcase your company and products or services to many key scientists and decision makers, in a friendly, informal way under one roof.

The ASNTR gives you a cost-effective opportunity to:

- Promote your company brand to a targeted audience
- Generate quality sales leads
- Identify and understand the customers' needs
- Gain insight to future technology needs
- Launch new products or services

Each and every conference exhibition provides you with:

- Attendance at all conference sessions
- Networking with Key Decision Makers
- Direct Access to Speakers and Delegates
- A Relaxed & Informal Networking Environment
